NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—Our subscribers in the city are requested not to pay the Carriers, as such payment will not be recognised. Payments must be made either to Mr. Conklin, the city collector, or in THE NEWS office.

THE FRIEND OF TEMPERANCE ALMANAC FOR 1876.—We are indebted to Mr. R. H. Whitaker, editor of the Friend of Temperance of this city, for a carefully compiled and conveniently arranged almanac for 1876, containing much interesting temperance reading, songs, anecdotes &c. Price ten cents per copy.

RAILROAD AGENCIES.—Rumor has it that A. M. Lewter, at present agent of the North Carolina Railroad at Salisbury, succeeds Geo. T. Jones, resigned, in the agency at this place. Mr. Lewter will be succeeded by John H. Bryan, formerly of this place, who has for some time been acting as assistant agent at that place.

RESIGNATION.—Col. P. W. Perry, who was for a number of years Supervisor of Internal Revenue for this District, and who was recently transferred to a New England District, has withdrawn entirely from the revenue service. Rumor has it that one G. W. Chamberlain is to be assigned to this District.

THE HEAVIEST RECEIPTS EVER HAD IN THE CITY.—The receipts of cotton in this city yesterday footed up 607 bales, being the largest amount ever before received in one day. This makes 1,694 bales received in the last three days, for which something like $100,000 have been paid up. At this rate Raleigh will soon become a cotton market of no mean proportions.

The market closed dull yesterday evening at 13 cents for best grades.

The joint committee from the Board of Aldermen and from the citizens of Raleigh, to consider the question of the debt of the city and the funding of the same, met last night. A second mass-meeting of the citizens will be called at an early day. For prudential reasons, Messrs. R. H Battle, Jr., and Sylvester Smith have been substituted on the committee from the citizens for Messrs. Kemp P. Battle and C. B. Root.

P. S.—The committee did not have a meeting last night for the want of a quorum, only Messrs. Blake, Bagley, Ellison, Litchford, Miller, Keith, McKee, R. H. Battle, Jr., and Osborne Hunter, Jr., being present. They will have another meeting Monday evening at 7½ o'clock.

THE RALEIGH AND GASTON R. R. AND THE WELDON FAIR.—Excursion trains will be run over the Raleigh and Gaston Road on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next, from Henderson to Weldon, in order to give persons along the line of the road the opportunity to visit the Weldon Fair which commences on Tuesday. The train will leave Henderson every morning at 6:30, Warrenton at 7:30, Littleton at 8:17, and arrive at Weldon at 9:30. Returning, leave Weldon at 4:45 p. m. and arrive at Henderson at 7:45. Fare for the round trip, including tickets into the Fair Grounds, will be: from Raleigh $3.50, from Wake $3 20, from Franklinton $2 65, from Kittrell's $2 40, from Henderson $2.15, from Ridgeway $1.75, from Warrenton $1.60, from Macon $1.50, from Littleton $1.15, and from Gaston 85 cents.

THE FREEDMEN'S SAVINGS BANK.—At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the Freedman's Savings Bank, held last Wednesday evening, Chas. N. Hunter, the former Assistant Cashier of the Raleigh branch, was appointed agent to receive and forward the pass-books of depositors to Washington to collect the dividend of 20 per cent. to be paid them on the 1st of Nov. prox., and to afford them all necessary information. Secretary Rhodes Rev. P. L. Spencer and Northcut Danston were appointed a committee to render the agent all needed assistance, and to see that each book is promptly forwarded, returned and delivered.

The agent will be at the office of Albert Magnin, Esq., on Monday, and between the hours of 9 and 3 o'clock each day during the ensuing week. Depositors should take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

DELEGATES TO THE VIRGINIA STATE FAIR.—The N. C. State Agricultural Society has appointed the following gentlemen as representatives to the Virginia State Fair which commences in Richmond next week: Col. T. M. Holt, Alamance; Maj. J. C. Winder, Wake; John Nichols, Esq., Wake; Col. J. D. Whitford, Craven; Dr. B. F. Arrington, Wake; Col. P. Donan, Wake; Dr. Columbus Mills, Cabarrus; Col. J. H. Heck, Wake; Capt. S. B. Alexander, Mecklenburg; Maj. W. J. Yates, Mecklenburg; Capt. T. R. Thigpen, Edgecombe; Col. J. L. Bridgers, Edgecombe; A. H. Boyden, Esq., Rowan; Maj. G. W. Grice, Wake; Col. A. H. Sherford, Catawba; Gen. T. L. Clingman, Buncombe; Gen. W. R. Cox, Wake; Maj. J. A. Englehard, New Hanover; Hon. D. G. Fowle, Wake; Dr. G. W. Blacknall, Wake; Col. D. M. Carter, Wake.

CANE PRESENTATION—AN INTERESTING SCENE.—Yesterday at 12 o'clock a number of gentlemen, including many of the leading citizens of Raleigh, met in the dining room of the Yarboro House for the purpose of witnessing the presentation of a cane as a token of respect from our citizens to Col. Thomas M. Holt, the efficient President of the State Agricultural Society. As soon as the company was seated, Major R. S. Tucker stepped forward and said:

Mr. President Holt: I have been requested to represent our fellow citizens on this occasion in conveying to you their appreciation of your services as President of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. Why I have been selected, I do not know, except that I am not officially connected with the management of the affairs of the Society, whilst so many gifted sons here present could and would have performed this pleasing task much more satisfactory. However, I come to perform the duty directly from my counting-room and store, in the midst of a hurrying, busy life, to assure you of the appreciation of our citizens of your active efforts in promoting the agricultural interests of North Carolina at large, and of our own people.

I am one of those, Mr. President, who have always reserved the right to condemn and oppose, what my judgment and interest did not approve—at the same time I trust I am above that sordid selfishness which can not approve meritorious action and duty well performed, even where it militated against my individual interest or that of my friends. Happily, however, on this occasion, we find nothing but what our judgment, interest and feelings approve.

I am no stranger, Mr. President, to the labors necessary to the successful management of an Agricultural Society. In the early days, in the beginning, I may say, of this great public work, I had the honor to be, for a number of years, a member of its executive committee. I had the pleasure of being associated with the men of that day, Thos. Ruffin, Wilson Whitaker, Richard Smith, Dr. W. R. Holt and others. Most of them have passed to that place where no labor is performed, that place of peace and rest. May you and your associates continue to emulate their noble example and persevere in your great work, pressing onward and upward, your flag at the summit of the dome, with the motto "Excelsior" emblazoned on its folds.

I hold in my hand, Mr. President a stick or staff presented to you by the citizens of Raleigh as a small token of their appreciation of the fidelity and zeal with which you have performed your duty. The gift is comparatively small in itself, but it serves a double purpose. It is intended as a moral support and encouragement. May it be a support to you in the every day walks of life, and may it bear your tottering limbs and be a prop and staff on which to lean in the sear and yellow leaf of life. And here permit me to add my individual personal testimony to the success which has crowned your efforts. For years you and yours, myself and mine have been friends, each feeling rejoiced at the prosperity and success of the other. May time cement and increase these friendly associations.

Major Tucker's remarks were received with applause, and accepting the cane from his hands, Col. Holt replied in substance as follows:

Maj Tucker and Gentlemen: I accept with gratitude and pleasure the elegant testimonial which you have so kindly presented. It affords me a double pleasure; first, because it comes from the citizens of Raleigh; and second, because it shows they appreciate my efforts in behalf of our State Fair. There is no reason why our Annual Fair should not be the equal of any in the South or in the Union. We have a State grand in extent and limitless in resources; the only State in all our great sisterhood that filled out every blank in the census reports of 1870. Blessed with every variety of soil and climate, and with a people intelligent, honest, industrious and public spirited, North Carolina can and should have a Fair that would be a glorious reunion of East, West, North and South. And, in spite of the dismal forebodings of a few croakers, it bids fair to be what it should. The interest is increasing, and the exhibition itself is growing in size and importance every year. If the people will only stand by our Executive Committee and co-operate with them, we will ultimately build up such an exposition as will be worthy of the proudest and best State in the American Union. I again thank you for this handsome evidence of your confidence and regard, assuring you that this cane shall ever remind me of one of the most pleasant epochs of my life.

The cane is a magnificent ebony with massive gold head, elaborately carved with agricultural emblems, and bearing this inscription: "To Col. Thomas M. Holt, President North Carolina Agricultural Society, from his friends in Raleigh." It was made by Raleigh's popular jeweler, Mr. Mahler, at a cost of $65.

At the close of the presentation ceremonies, Dr. Blacknall invited the company to partake of a collation, and amid sherry and bourbon the prosperity of the Society and the long life of its President were invoked and many a good thing said and appreciated.

This evidence of esteem and confidence in Col. Holt, who has for three years so successfuly and acceptably filled the position of President of the State Agricultural Society, is but the reward of true merit and is but what is felt by our whole community and by the public with whom he has been thrown in contact in the discharge of the onerous and varied duties of his office.

THE HOPS AT THE WELDON FAIR.—We are requested to state that all ladies visiting the Weldon Fair next week are invited to attend the hops to be given at the Weldon Hotel each night and the grand ball to be had on Friday night. No tickets will be issued, as the managers will find this impossible.

Sustaining the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. Editor:—Allow me to invite the attention of the people of Raleigh to the importance of encouraging and sustaining the Young Men's Christian Association. This Association now has a spacious and handsome room in the Briggs building, well supplied with paper and periodicals, and the room will be left open every day until nine o'clock at night, for the benefit of our young men. It is expected also that a weekly prayer meeting will be held in the room, and all proper means used to preserve and improve the moral and spiritual character of those who may attend. This consideration, aside from the fact that the Association has been the medium of much good to the deserving poor, should enlist in behalf of the Association the sympathy and support of our people

I learn that last year one hundred cords of wood and four hundred rations of meal and bacon were issued by the Association to the poor.

There will be a union meeting on Sunday night next, in the First Baptist Church, to encourage the members of the Association in their laudable work. I hope the church will be filled on the occasion, and that much good will result from the meeting. On Tuesday night next the Association will hold a meeting in their room in the Briggs building, when a Constitution and By-Laws will be adopted. Let every member of the Association attend this meeting.

A MEMBER.

BROTHER MILLSON "SAND HILL" STATION, C. C. R. R.—Mr. Mills, Supt. of the Oxford Orphan Asylum and Editor of the Children's Home published at that institution, gets off the following good thing in his usual style at the expense of the probable terminus of the Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line Railroad:

The Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line Railroad now runs to Cameron, 35 miles from Rockingham on the Carolina Central Railway, and is graded to Drowning Creek. The present indications are that the former road will tap the latter at Sand Hill. Now it sometimes happens that trains do not make close connections, and just think of a hundred passengers lying over at Sand Hill! Gallberries and persimmons! We once took supper at Beaver Dam Hotel, a bachelor being proprietor, and may the Lord have mercy on his soul. But if Col. Sanford has fixed his face for Sand Hill, then let Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Troy, Mrs. Yarboro or some other kind widow be stationed there, and we and brother Duckett will be happy.

A "YOUTHFUL" BRIDAL COUPLE.—The Lumberton Robesonian gives the following account of a remarkable marriage in that locality, the happy bridal party footing up the snug little age of 140. There is still hope for all who may hereafter become tired of single blessedness. Says the Robesonian:

"Last Friday Register Ward issued a license for marriage for a gentleman and lady of this county, who turned out to be the oldest matrimonial candidates that the present Register has found during four years of official life. They were both 70 years old, and the woman's last husband has not been dead two months. We did not learn what number her prospective husband will foot up, though she was evidently in too much hurry. If people in the other world know what is going on here we must think that the late deceased will be a little jealous of his successor. Of course they will marry without the consent of their parents."

A THIEF AT LARGE.—On Friday, the 15th inst., a white man named J. E. Johnston, some 30 years of age, a painter by trade, and hailing from no where in particular, who has been for a short while past at work at Franklinton, obtained a mule from Mrs. Winston, of that town, under false pretences and has never put in an appearance since. He was seen in Raleigh on that day with the mule, but has not been seen since in these quarters. A description of both the thief and the mule will be found in our advertising columns, and it is to be hoped the scoundrel may be captured and punished and the mule be returned to its owner.

RELIGIOUS.—There will be a union meeting on Sunday night next, the 24th, at the First Baptist Church, in this city, of the Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians, and such other Christians and as many of our people generally as may choose to attend, in aid of the Young Men's Christian Association of Raleigh. This Association has heretofore been the means of substantial good to our deserving poor; and we learn that it is now fully organized, and will direct its attention also to the moral and intellectual culture and benefit of our young men. It deserves the fostering care of our community. Addresses may be expected on the occasion referred to.

It speaks for itself; is what a lady said of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the other day, for a single bottle cured my child of a most dreadful cough.

Granville Court—Things in and Around Oxford—an Entertainment for the Benefit of the Orphans.

OXFORD, N. C., Oct. 22nd, 1875.

DEAR NEWS:—Having promised the indefatigable Woodson that if he succeeded in getting one hundred subscribers to the great Daily and Weekly, I'd drop you a few lines in regard to Granville Court, and he having come within three of it, I make haste to fulfill my part of the compact.

We have had a very dull court so far. The only cases of interest before the court was one where a Mr. Hudson was tried for shooting a negro named Abram Venable whom he caught "butlerizing" in his potato patch and poured a heavy load of shot into. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and "Greasy Sam" sentenced him to pay $1.00 fine and costs. The only other case of public interest was the trial of the radical Board of County Commissioners on the charge of allowing themselves constructive mileage to which they were not entitled. This trial was brought about by Blow, of the Leader, (a paper, by the bye, that during its brief existence done Granville county a great deal of good,) and which brought down on Blow's head the most dire vengeance of the whole Radical ring. The Judge decided that the Commissioners had no right to charge mileage other than "to and from" their place of meeting. The Board of Commissioners have appealed to the Supreme Court.

Your readers who have had occasion to visit this county will, I know, be rejoiced to learn that there is now a fair chance of having good roads in this vicinage, the Grand Jury having commenced indicting the several overseers of roads whose roads have not been worked.

Besides Woodson's "Another soul made happy," we have had (in the way of amusement) an auction sale daily and nightly.

On Tuesday night the young Misses of Oxford gave an entertainment at the Asylum, for the benefit of the Orphans. The performance would have done credit to older heads, and possessed many attractions worthy of special mention, but lack of space forbids. They realized about $28.

The Epizootic.

The following opinion of Dr. Kirwin, the well known authority of New York and the Canadas, will be found interesting and valuable:

This troublesome malady is again in our midst, and we are likey to receive a visit from it every fall if we do not take better care of our animals. For the last four years it has appeared at this time in various parts of the country.

Epizooty is only another name for influenza, or a mild form of glanders, which, if treated promptly, will disappear as rapidly as an ordinary cold—that is, if the horse is in a condition to meet the shock to the system. Unfortunately, this is very rarely the case. We are too apt to neglect to feed our animals properly, and so long as we succeed in getting a certain amount of work out of them, and they look tolerably well, we do not mind how they are fed or cared for.

Our stablemen foist on to us numbers of worthless and injurious mixtures containing arsenic, antimony and salpetre, entitled "condition powders." These vile nostrums, in the hands of ignorant stablemen, are certain demoralization to our horses if persevered in.

Now the remedy is simply to obey the laws of nature or in other words feed properly; see to the ventilation of stables, let there be no putrid mangers produced by the accumulation of fermented food. I am often aske: How do you feed, what do you recommened? I invariably answer, "A mixed diet," and in this I am endorsed by Youatt Spooner, the verterinary editor of the Field, and the entire English omnibus companies together with the leading horsemen in the United States. Such men as Robert Bonner and Commodore Vanderbilt never had any epizooty in their stables. Why? Because they take care how they feed their horses; and I can safely affirm if like care is taken by every man that keeps a horse, this year will see the last of the epizooty in this country.

If we were able to use our horses as well as the Arabian takes care of his only friend, we should have no trouble, but pressure of business in this advanced age prevents our letting our under our own roof.

Then let us examine the food of the Arabian horse and we find it is the nutritious herbs, seeds and roots gathered by his loving master to mingle with the rich maize that grows on the verdant oasis of the scorching desert. The question was mooted some time ago, could these valuable seeds, herbs and roots be utilized for the general feeding of horses and cattle. Botanist and chemist found this could be accomplished, and these ingredients grow in all countries, and to great perfection in America.

The consquence is we have a valuable nutritious food known as Gordon's food for horses and cattle, and a Gordon plan of mixed feeding, which, if universally adopted, will make a most beneficial change in the health and appearance of the horses of the United States.

This food contains seven or eight ingredients, all of a health-giving nature, and at a low price.

My mode of feeding, for a horse, is with 3 quarts of corn meal or 4 quarts of oats.

I feed Gordon's Food (half-pint cost, 2c).

1 lb. chopped hay, three times a day.

I tried this plan three years ago on seven horses suffering from the worst form of epizooty, and they all recovered. I have seen two horses stand side by side in a stable, one fed on the Gordon plan, the other on the old plan. The one fed on the Gordon plan remained in good condition; the other went through the most violent stages of disorder and ultimately collapsed.

The Gordon system of feeding is to produce perfect digestion of all provender, without any extra stimulating effect on the stomach, thus producing good blood and a stamina that will withstand the inroads of the most intense malady. It is well known to all horse owners that horses in good condition are less liable to be afflicted by any contagious disease than those that are run down, or have been badly fed.

SOMNAMBULISM EXTRAORDINARY.—A curious case of somnambulism, says the London Echo, is reported by a correspondent at Calcutta, of which a klitmutgar in the employ of one of his friends, is the subject. A little after midnight till nearly 2 o'clock in the morning this man, he says, begins chanting verse after verse of his Koran and of sacred hymns; repeats the Divine precepts; criticises the shortness of time in this world, and the length of eternity in the next; and, finally, winds up with an unearthly howl or shriek. During all this time he is in the soundest of slumbers, and the only way to put a stop to this hullabaloo is to turn the man on his side; for, should any one awake him, he will just open his eyes for a minute, and if allowed to continue on the flat of his back, he will recommence his howling hymns.

A MONKEY STOPS A TRAIN.—A day or two since the train on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad was stopped by a monkey while in rapid motion. It seems that the train was bowling along at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour, when suddenly 'down brakes' was sounded, the engine bell ringing vigorously at the same time, and the locomotive came to a stop as the brakesmen sprang to their posts. The conductor was rather mystified, and at once proceeded to investigate the matter. It was discovered that a monkey, which was confined in the baggage-car, had broken loose and was amusing himself swinging on the bell rope, and the engineer was thus signalled to stop.

Captain Andrew Worst was with Napoleon at Jena and Austerlitz, marched to Moscow, was wounded at Waterloo, came to America in 1821, and died the other day at St. Leon, Indiana, at the age of 88. Louis Napoleon sent him the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

HOW TO VANQUISH THE STOMACH'S TORMENTOR.—If the Enemy of mankind was permitted to exert his diabolical ingenuity in the invention of a new disease, he could scarcely devise one more worthy of his genius than dyspepsia. The dyspeptic sufferer is tormented by symptoms resembling those of almost every known malady, and is often worried into monomania by these conflicting and perplexing manifestations. A favorite though absurd hallucination of the victim of chronic indigestion is that he or she has the heart disease. Dyspepsia has often been pronounced incurable, but experience has shown that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will vanquish it, together with the constipation and bilious derangement which usually accompany it. Diseases of the kidneys and supposed rheumatic pains are also frequent concomitants of dyspepsia, but they, too, succumb to the above named invaluable corrective.

MULE STOLEN,

from Mrs Winston, of Franklinton, Franklin county, on Friday, the 15th inst., a dark MARE MULE, some seven years of age. It was ridden off by a man named J. E. JOHNSTON, a painter, who had been in that section for a short while. The man and mule were both seen in Raleigh the same day, but have not been heard from since.

The man Johnston is white, but of dark complexion, some 30 years of age, and is not stoutly built, weighs some 135 pounds, and is quick of speech, but with a slight brogue attached.

$10 reward is offered for the arrest of the man and recovery of the mule, or $5 for the recovery of the mule.

Information can be sent to Mrs. WINSTON, or to M. C. WINSTON,

OUR TERMS:

ADVERTISING RATES.—Per square (ten lines, Nonpariel) first insertion $1.00; each subsequent insertion 50 cents. Contracts for advertisements of any space or time can be made at the counting-room of the NEWS OFFICE.

CONTRACTORS will positively not be allowed to exceed their space, or advertise other than the legitimate business, except by paying specially for the same.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—Daily, one year, $5.00; six months $3.00. Weekly, one year, $1.00; six months, 75 cents. Invariably in advance.

Notice to Correspondents.

No letter can be published in these columns which is not authenticated by the name of its author. This we require, not for publication, but as a guarantee of the good faith of correspondents. Persons who violate this rule will have their communications consigned to the waste-basket.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

THE Elizabeth City Economist has been revived by its former editor, Mr. R. B. Creecy, a gentleman of ability and culture, who has had much experience in journalism.

THERE was a gathering of Confederate Surgeons in Richmond a few days ago. The Surgeon-Gen'l of the Confederacy, presided. Dr. Satchwell, of this State, was one of the Vice-Presidents. The principal object of the meeting was to make contributions to the medical and surgical history of the war. The experience of the Confederate surgeons ought to be worth a great deal to the cause of Medical Science.

GOV. TILDEN, the great reformer, reminds the District Attorneys of New York, of the laws relating to the improper use of money at elections. We have similar laws in this State. But they seem to be dead letters. There is no doubt that money was used in the August election. If the grand juries and Solicitors would ferret out a few of the cases of bribery at the polls, and make examples of them, it would have a wholesome effect.

THE preliminary work on the proposed tunnel across the English Channel has actually begun. This operation will exceed in magnitude any other enterprise ever undertaken by man. The tunnel will be more than twenty miles in length, sunk beneath the bed of the Ocean. The making of the Suez Canal, the laying of the Atlantic Cable, the tunnelling of the Alps, the bridging of the Mississippi at St. Louis, are works which sink into insignificance beside this monster undertaking.

THE National Republican thinks the issues of slavery and secession but partially closed; and intimates that they will not be finally closed "so long as the Southern people continue, as they now do, to teach their children that slavery was justifiable and secession honorable.' The rising generation in the South are being taught that the war for Southern independence was not only excusable, but in every way honorable, and also, that stealing from the government is dishonorable, and that successful rogues are not heroes, such as the organs of the Republican administration at Washington would have them.

ACCORDING to the late dispatches, says the Philadelphia Times, the insurrection of the Turkish provinces seems to be about at an end. The Turks have occupied the last stronghold of the insurgents in Herzegovina, and as none of its neighbors have come to the support of that plucky little province—Servia, the strongest of them, backing out with but little credit to her Prince—the sick man has probably another lease of life. His greatest trouble at present is in the region of his pocket. The Turkish Government has for some time been borrowing money at a high rate to pay the interest on its outstanding bonds, and there must always come an end to this style of financiering, especially as Turkish bonds are not interconvertible, and no Ottorman financier has yet invented any easy process of paying them off in notes. The lenders, in this case, have a prejudice for hard money, and it is now reported that "negotiations with the Great Powers are in progress" for the purpose of demanding from Turkey a guarantee for the payment of the interest debt after five years. Whether the Powers will undertake to collect the bad debts owing to their subjects we cannot say, but as Turkey is of necessity an inveterate borrower, she will probably make some effort to retain whatever shreds of credit she has left. This will presumably be accomplished by additional taxation, which will not pacify the discontented provinces very much. There is strength enough in the Empire still to enforce obedience to its authority at home, and the resources of the country are sufficient, if rightly used, to redeem it from its crushing load of debt; but the canker of corruption at the capital has produced the results that corruption always will produce in every country—disorder, oppression, poverty, discontent at home and discredit abroad.

CHICAGO is so wicked a city that we cannot expect to find even its editors wholly free from the prevailing depravity. But one of the editors of Storey's Times has been indicted under circumstances which reflect very seriously upon the management of that paper. Publishers will sometimes unintentionally violate that irrational bequest of mediæval times, the law of libel, but there is no possible excuse for the infamous proceeding which the Chicago Times is accused of resorting to for the purpose of avoiding the penalties of such an infraction. It will be remembered that Storey was some months ago mulcted in damages to the extent of $25,000 for libeling a Miss Early, of Rockford, Ill. The Times was innocent of any malicious intent, but published a letter making scandalous charges against the young lady without attempting to ascertain whether they were true or not. The amount awarded was certainly excessive in the extreme, and the plaintiff consented to accept fifteen thousand dollars rather than have the case appealed. But Mr. Storey still demurred and took an appeal to the Supreme Court, where the case is yet pending. Now comes the really disgraceful part of the affair. One F. B. Wilkie, an assistant editor of the Times, is said to have been sent to Rockford with instructions to obtain evidence against the character of the plaintiff with a view to the reduction of the damages. The lady bears an irreproachable character and belongs to one of the first families of the town. Wilkie joined with a disreputable ex-sheriff in an attempt to bribe various parties to make affidavits of the sort he desired, but was caught at it. Both of them have been indicted for conspiracy, and Mr. Storey will likely be deprived of the services of his enterprising assistant by the compulsory retirement of the letter to the Illinois penitentiary.

THE CHARLOTTE RACES.

The races which were advertised to take place at Charlotte next month, have been indefinitely postponed. The reason for this is not assigned. One cause given is that the purses offered could not be made up, several parties who subscribed having absolutely refused to pay the amount of their subscription.

Had the races come off as proposed, we doubt if success would have attended the enterprise. It is manifest that the masses of our people care nothing for horse-racing. And unless the masses of the people do take an interest in things of the kind, failure is bound to be the result.

The track at Charlotte is an excellent one. The railroads centering in the city offer every facility for the attendance of the people from the surrounding country, and from a distance. The city can accommodate a large crowd; and Charlotte is the place at which to try the experiment of Spring or Fall Races. We should like to see the trial made, but have grave doubts as to its success, as we believe the masses of our people are indifferent to horse-racing, and as it is manifest that horse-racing is offensive to a large proportion of the religious element of this State.

NORTHERN ELECTIONS.

Massachusetts and Pennsylvania will soon vote. We are sanguine of success in neither. The odds are against the Democrats in both of these States.

The Ohio election virtually decided the pending contest in Pennsylvania. The chances in this latter State were never so bright as in the former, anyhow. The issues it is true are somewhat different. The great, overshadowing question in the Keystone State is not contraction or inflation, but the question of Reform. The currency issue is of secondary importance. But still, we cannot feel hopeful of the result, in view of the facts that Pennsylvania went Republican in the last contest, and that the Republican party enters this contest with the prestige of its victory in Ohio.

The Republican organs say it is now only a question as to the size of their anticipated majority. The New York Times and the National Republican agree in the opinion that Hartranft will be re-elected by at least 15,000 majority. This prediction seems to be generally accepted in the State.

Massachusetts surprised the whole country by shaking the dust of Radicalism from its feet last year. What it will do this year, is a problem still. Whether she will continue to go forward on the path of Reform, or turn back to wallow in the mire of Republicanism, is one of those things which Lord Dundreary would say, "no fellow can find out." A State that gave Grant 80,000 majority in 1868, can never be relied upon for the Democrats.

In calculating the chances in Massachusetts, we should remember that although a Democratic candidate was elected in 1874, all of the other candidates on the Republican ticket that year were elected by majorities ranging from twelve thousand to over twenty-three thousand.

A Heartless Swindle.

A few days ago an advertisement in a Boston paper for a clerk who wanted a good situation and could deposit $500 as surety for his honesty, integrity, etc., or words to that effect, caught the eye of a young man in this city, and there being something very attractive either about depositing the money or the promised situation, he went to Boston with the requisite amount of money in his pocket. He visited the office of "Henry Howard & Co.," the advertisers, and made known his business. After some conversation and a recital of what his duties were to be (which, by the way, were to be extremely light) he announced his intention of accepting the situation and making the deposit. Just here there was a slight hitch, the gentlemanly proprietor informing him that there was a posibility that his partner, who he said was in this city, might have secured a young man, and he would, before taking the money, telegraph to him to make sure about it. Such candor and fairness, of course, had its effect upon the young man, and he was all the more anxious for a position with so upright a man. A dispatch was sent to the partner, directed to the City Hotel here, and in due time an answer, or what purported to be an answer, was received, saying the place was not filled. The bargain was then closed, and the young man deposited the money. The proprietor took it, and in a careless manner apparently put it into the money-drawer, and locking the drawer he gave the key to his new clerk, telling him he was going out for a short time on business, and he might begin his work at once. The clerk waited for his return for a long time, but at first thought nothing of it; for wasn't the money safe in the drawer, and wasn't the drawer locked, and didn't he have the key? Finally, however, his suspicion or curiosity got the best of him, and he examined the drawer. Imagine his surprise and consternation at finding therein but a package of worthless paper, and the trick flashed upon his mind. An effort was made to find his partner in the city, but the dispatch spoken of above hasn't reached him yet, and probably never will.—Providence Journal.

A Sleepy Horse that Beat the Field.

At the Dubuque Fair a sleepy, poor, homely horse called Lothair, was entered in every race. He began by taking the 3:1o race; then 3 minute, 2:15, 2:40, and won two heats of the 2:35 race, when a protest was entered that he had a better record than the race he was trotting in. His driver denied this soft impeachment, and challenged proof. The judges called him up to the stand and swore him. About this time he had got his wrath up, and swore he would show them a trick worth looking at. In the third heat he let the sleepy horse out and distanced the whole field easily, cuttin all others out of the chance of second, third and fourth money. The swearing of the army in Flanders was nothing compared to those horsemen who were looped. The air got so hot that Lothair and his driver lit out in the night with several thousand dollars pulled from the greenies who played with him. During the selling of pools the owner bought the field $2 against $5, and in the end scooped the whole business. The query is, "Who is Lothair, and where did he come from?" Nobody knows further than the owner said he come from Canada. At all events he cut the eyeteeth of the sharpest horseman in the State, and did it so handsomely that they did not discover it until he had got their money and was gone.—Ex.

Too Much Instinct.

The following dog story is related in a New Jersey exchange:

The instinct of Newfoundland dogs to save a drowning person has been somewhat painfully tested by an unlucky Frenchman. He was walking in the country with a friend, who possessed a magnificent Newfoundland dog, and incautiously tested the truth of the animal's sagacity. The dog's master, vexed at the slur cast on his favorite, gave his friend a push and knocked him into a shallow river. "Turk" immediately sprang in, and seizing one of the tails of the immersed man's coat, commenced to swim for land. Unfortunately another Newfoundland, trotting along the other side of the river, saw the affair, and also came to the rescue. Dog number two seized the other tail of the coat and wished to swim back to his master. "Turk" held fast and struggled for his side, and the owner of the coat cried in vain for help. At last the coat gave way, and each Newfoundland swam proudly home with a piece of cloth in his mouth, so that "Turk's" master was obliged to plunge in himself to save his friend.

On Hang, of North Adams, sings of Mary and her little lamb:

Was gal name Moli had lam,
Fless all samee white sno,
Evly place Moli gal walkee
Ba, By, hoppee long too.

A young man, named Chas. C. Dunn, shot himself in the mouth on Sunday night in Charleston. The unfaithfulness of his girl was the cause. He may die.

It speaks for itself; is what a lady said of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the other day, for a single bottle cured my child of a most dreadful cough.

Arrangements for the Inauguration of the Jackson Statue.

A Richmond correspondent, under date of the 20th, thus speaks of the arrangements that are being made in that city for the inauguration of the Jackson statue next week:

Arrangements for the inauguration of the English statue of Stonewall Jackson are being rapidly perfected. An enormous amount of troublesome work is devolved upon the Governor, but he is a laborious public servant, and will get through with it. When people come here and see the statue and pedestal, they will say that they are small affairs to make so much fuss about. The statue is about 7 feet, and the pedestal 12 or 14 feet high. But it is not these alone that there is so much "fuss" about. It is the Hero who is being honored and the noble Englishmen who have presented the statue have given us the occasion.

There will be something to set the radica's a thinking on the day of the inauguration. They will see fifteen hundred or two thousand volunteers and cadets in gray coats carrying State and Federal flags, they will see numerous negro orders and societies toteing banners "with strange devices," and on some of the banners perhaps pictures of Abraham Lincoln, they will see more ex-Confederate generals than were ever assembled together since the seven days battle around Richmond; more news paper men than ever attended a press banquet; perchance some wild rebel may (but it is hoped will not) display a Confederate flag; they will see conservatives and radicals and independents, natives and foreigners, whites and blacks, rich and poor, young and old, ex-Confederate and ex-Federal cordially uniting in a procession that will be the longest, the bravest the grandest and the most remarkable ever seen in the South.

And all to do honor to the late rebel, T. J. Jackson.

Well may the Governor work hard to make success of the undertaking that promises so much.

The fire-works will be a great feature of the occasion. They will be in charge of experts. It is proposed to spell out the name Stonewall Jackson high up in the air with blazing rockets. In other words and literally the name will be written in fire in mid-heavens.

Speaking of the heat of the Ohio campaign the Chicago Times says: "Not since the war has such heat and bitterness been aroused from political differences. In Ohio friends have been permanently abjured relatives alienated and as for political lines they have been very nearly obliterated. In the Allen family the Governor refuses communication with his nephew Thurman, though that gentleman did all he could to aid the old man's cause, ruining his own prospects in the effort. On the stump Allen Thurman, the Senator's son and the Governor's great nephew spoke against his relative. On the street the Allen family passed by and ignored the Thurmans, and the other great houses stand similarly split up by the feud."

M. Gambetta, in a recent speech, spoke confidently of the future of France, and praised the moderation and prudence of the democracy. Loud cries of "Vive Gambetta" being raised, he said, "My friends, cry, rather, 'Vive la Republique,' which is the same thing as 'Vive la France.'"

Extraordinary Opportunity for the Relief of the Afflicted.

The surgeons of the National Surgical Institute, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, have finally yielded to the many urgent appeals to visit the South Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Pavilion Hotel, Charleston, S. C., November 3, 4, 5 and 6, 1875.

They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workmen to change, fit, and make such apparatus as may be required. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine, and Limbs, Diseased Joints, Diseased Eyes, Catarrh, Private Diseases, Piles, Fistula, etc. On account or the great expense attending such a trip, they will not make another; therefore, all who wish to avail themselves of the advantage of the Institute, without the long journey to Indianapolis, must do so at this time. No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say that the institution is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early. ☞ Send to the Institute for circular.

THE DAILY NEWS.

RALEIGH ..... OCTOBER 28, 1875

NORTH CAROLINA.

A redheaded turtle has been found in Wilson county.

The Durham Tobacco Plant is to be enlarged next week.

Noble's Church, in Edgecombe, was dedicated last Sabbath. Rev. Mr. Wilson conducted the services.

The cholera is still prevailing among the hogs in the Toisnot section.

The corn crop of Davidson county is better than it has been for many years.

The Pick Wick Club of Newbern gave a complimentary ball Tuesday night at the Gaston House, to the Dixie Rose Ball Club, in honor of their fair victory at Raleigh over the Athletics.

The survivors of the Confederate forces (army and navy,) engaged in the siege of Fort Fisher, N. C., December 25th 1864, and January 15th, 1865, are invited to a re-union to take place in the city of Wilmington, on the 15th of November next. The call is signed by William Lamb, late Commander Fort Fisher.

Says the Winston Sentinel: "Within less than three years Winston has increased its population 1 500, and is growing more rapidly than at any time since its existence. Within the last twelve months more than one hundred and thirty-seven houses have been, and at least one dozen are now under construction. Is there a town in the State that can beat it?"

Says the Winston Sentinel: "Henry Martin, an inmate of the Stokes county poor house, was found dead in bed near the poor house on Wednesday morning of last week, with a partially empty bottle of whiskey near him. The deceased was a young man was a lawyer of bright promise, and at one time represented Stokes county in the Legislature, but the demon of intemperance seized him and bore him down to a lonely and miserable death and a pauper's grave."

Says the Goldsboro Messenger: "The stockholders of the Atlantic Railroad met in Newbern on Monday last according to adjournment. A full representation of the stock was present and after many proposals and speeches (the Stockholders voted to change the gauge of the road to conform to that of the N. C. R. R., and to extend the track down Craven Front street, in Newbern to a convenient point with Trent river, the object point being left with directors, which will no doubt be the foot of Craven street. We learn that the officers of the road contemplate going to work changing the gauge without further delay, and to this end a large force is to be employed in order that the work may be pushed as speedily as possible. There is a rumor that an effort will be made to stop the change of gauge by an injunction. This rumor, however, the officers of the road are preparing for the duty assigned them by the Stockholders."

DON'T TAKE IT.—She entered a store to wait for her husband to come around with the team, and bought a paper of some tooth-brushes, and asked the price.

"Twenty cents," replied the clerk.

"What!" she exclaimed, "twenty cents, and a bargain they are!"

She balanced one on her left hand, gesticulating vigorously with the other as she continued:

"You don't tell me that this 'ere brush is twenty cents, when I can purchase brush, with ten times as many bristles in it, for the same price?"—Fishing Herald.

A Richmond letter in the Staunton, Spectator says: Several of our young men have recently left the State to themselves fair brides in other parts of the State. They have a right to do this. How they can resist the sweet pin-backs of Richmond I can't see. They ought to encourage domestic enterprise in Virginia everything else.

The last "tramp" story out: She asked him a vest and a pair of pantaloons in answer to an appeal for clothes, for he was very ragged. She thought they would fit comfortably. He examined both garments with delight, and, throwing them down, exclaimed: "There ain't no watch pocket nor a hind pocket for a pistol!"

The question whether a club which buys liquor at wholesale and sells to its members upon the presentation of tickets is liable to the Federal license tax is on trial at Boston.

Augusta, Ga., claims the largest cotton factory in the South; 40 buildings are in process of erection, and the cotton to the value of $350,000 have been completed this year.

Pay your bets with as good grace as possible. Remember the old adage:

"'Tis better to have bet and lost,
'Tis never to have bet at all."

During the eight years the famous trotting mare, American Girl, who died recently at Elmira, has been on the turf, she netted her owner the handsome sum of $102,000.

A Pennsylvania printer who is the father of twenty-six children is puzzling himself to account for the hard times.

Johnson Wise, aged 14, a grandson of Prof. Wise, made a successful balloon ascension from Waynesburg, Pa., last week.

Ex-Gov. Curtin made his first speech for the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania at Bellefonte, on the 9th.

The City Hall of Baltimore will be dedicated on Monday next, the 25th inst.

The Queen of Holland is able to converse in every language of Europe.

The dedication of the Poe monument at Baltimore has been postponed until the 28th inst.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL Life Insurance Company

OF HARTFORD.

Incorporated in 1846.

Total income during 1874. $10,049,713.10.
Total surplus returned to Policy-holders during 1874. $3,037,872.83.
Average per cent surplus returned to policy-holders in 1874, 40.44 per cent.

This percentage of surplus returned is much greater than that of any other company, and more than twice that of several leading ones. It is the legitimate and inevitable result of care in the selection of risks and high rate of interest received from well invested assets. As the actual cost of the insurance to the policy-holder is regulated, not by the table rate charged, but by the amount the Company is able to save and return to him from the premium paid this latter item is of the greatest importance. Manifestly the company which is able to return to its policy holders the most surplus premiums, furnishes the insurance at the lowest cost. And this, the history of its policies shows the Connecticut Mutual is actually doing.

Total amount of Surplus Premiums returned from organization to Dec. 31st, 1874,..... $25,300,707 67
Surplus Premiums are returned annually commencing at the payment of the second premium.
Total amount of Claims paid from organization to Dec. 31st, 1874,..... $20,300,874 53.

THE OLD NORTH STATE

Vegetable Stomach Bitters,

PREPARED BY

C. G. LANIER,

Hickory, N. C.

In offering to the public for their use and relief the Old North State Vegetable Stomach Bitters,

I feel no hesitancy in saying this is the purest and best article ever offered them.

I warrant each bottle to contain NO chemical whatever—nothing but the best vegetable preparation, (See recommendation of physicians,) and the purest Domestic Whiskey.

In preparing this excellent tonic I have spared no pains or cost to make it just what I recommend it to be—

The Very Best Tonic ever offered to Invalids and Others, and without the usual cry of "Encourage Home Enterprise," I would say to all the suffering—Throw away the filthy and worthless drugs sold you heretofore by would be "all cures," and try one bottle of

and if then you will say you have not been benefitted by its use, I will return to all such their money.

OLD NORTH STATE BITTERS

cures all the diseases of the Blood, Gravel, Gout, Incipient Dropsy, Rheumatism, Colic, Pain of the Stomach and Bowels, and is peculiarly efficacious in all ordinary cases of Obstruction in the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs.

Relieves Dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, General Debility, Sluggish Circulation of Blood, Indigestion, want of Assimilation of Food and Exhausted Vital Energy!

NOON DISPATCHES.

The Erskine Whiskey Fraud—The Laying of a Corner Stone—Bishops Allowed to Consecrate.

WILWAUKEE, Oct. 22.—In the Erskine whiskey fraud trial to day after two hours consultation, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The remainder of the cases were postponed to November third.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—Bishop Cummings officiated in laying the corner stone of the Reformed Episcopal Church of the Redeemer. The church is built of marble.

CAMBRIDGE, MD., Oct. 22—The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Easton have consented to the consecration of Rev. Dr. McLaren, Bishop elect of Illinois, Rev. Dr. Brown, Bishop elect of Fon Du Lac, and Rev. Dr. Eccleston, Bishop elect of Iowa.

Barnum's Hotel, N. Y., Closed—a Failure—a Conspiracy to Help the Cubans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Barnum's Hotel of this city, will be closed to-morrow, its present proprietor, Theron Barnum, of St. Louis, having concluded to discontinue business, owing to unfavora ble prospects.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Messrs. G. D. Meroutson & Co., merchants of London and Manchester, have failed. Their liabilities are stated to be about $250,000. The Manchester Courier of to-day says that by the failure of a large American house, various firms in Bradford will lose from five to $600,000.

It is stated that the natives of Porto Rico, in this and neighboring cities, are forming a Committee after the manner of the Cuban patriots to cooperate with their fellow countrymen at home, in an effort to cast off the Spanish yoke, and that a thoroughly organized conspiracy has existed in the Island of Porto Rico during the past two years, the head of the organization being stationed at Kingston, Jamaica.

Foreign Matters.

MADRID, Oct. 22.—A royal decree convoking the Cortez will be issued immediately.

LONDON, Oct 22 —Wade reports to the foreign office that in addition to other guarantees, the Chinese commission goes to England hearing an apology for the German outrage and the safe condition to Burmah for commission of enquiring.

PARIS, Oct 22.—Rouhers' speech will be discussed in the council of ministers to-day. As soon as the Assembly meets the left will move to fix a day for disolution, hoping thus to procure a vote hostile to M. Buffet.

LONDON, Oct 22.—A Paris special to the Echo says at the coming session of the Assembly authorization to prosecute Rouher will be asked for attacking the McMahon Constitution.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Debt of the City of Mobile—A Nol Pros in the Case of Moulton. Indicted for the Alleged Libel of Beecher.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Commissioners representing the city of Mobile are now in this city, endeavoring to effect an arrangement by which its debate may become less burdensome. From their statement it appears that the total debt, principal and interest to be paid in sixteen years, will be $4,445,890, being 25 per cent of the total assessed value of the city. If held to this, the Commissioners say the city will become hopelessly insolvent and can never pay, and to help toward the settlement of these difficulties, the Legislature of Alabama passed an act giving the Governor of the State authority to appoint three citizens of Mobile as Commissioners to settle the city debt. This act provides for the issue of $2,000,000 of six per cent. bonds, payable in thirty years, from May 1st, 1875, and creates a first lien on the real estate belonging to the city, as well as on the revenues of the city.

A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of the People vs. Francis D. Moulton, indicted for the alleged libel of Henry Ward Beecher, by Judge Neilson. The motion is granted, and I think it proper to say, recognizing that the questions involved in such cases rests largely in the judgment and discretion of the prosecutor representing the people; that in this particular case the views expressed and course proposed to be pursued by the District Attorney, are proper and commend themselves to our judgment as a fair and just exercise of the discretion necessarily vested in him. The Clerk will make proper entry.

Mr. Britton made like motions in other indictments in the case of the People vs. Moulton and the People vs. Theodore Tilton, which were also granted.

The Steamship Aurora Burned—Sentenced to be Hung—A Cotton Merchant Dead — Gov. Allen Enters the Pennsylvania Campaign.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—Capt. Johnson, of the steamship Royal Standard, reports that on Sept. 30th, lat. 36, long. 31, he found burning the iron ship Aurora. He boarded the wreck, which had been abandoned. Capt. Johnson scuttled the wreck and proceeded.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Wm. Delancy, for the murder of Capt. Lawrence, of the schooner Josephine, has been sentenced to death on Dec. 10th.

BOSTON, Oct. 22.—Josiah Bardwell, of Skinner & Co., well known in Southern cotton circles, is dead.

CHILLICOTHE, OHIO, Oct. 22.—Gov. Allen leaves for the Pennsylvania campaign. His first speech will be at Pittsburg.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

Tempestuous Weather—A Heavy Failure, &c.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Weather tempestuous. Much damage has been done to shipping. Reported disasters involving the loss of twenty lives.

G. D. Neroutson & Co., merchants of Manchester and London, have failed. Liabilities quarter of a million Dollars. A large American house loses heavily by this failure.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Estimates for the German Empire for 1876 show a deficiency of fifteen million marks.

Resolutions of Regret -The Sugar Trade.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Executive Committee of the Associated Press to-day adopted resolutions of regret at the death of Frederick Hudson, he having been one of the founders of the association, and for twenty years a member of the committee.

The collector of this port, under instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, has modified the order regarding the sugar debate, so as to allow the exportation of sugar at the old rate, in cases where valid contracts can be shown previous to the reduction of drawback.

Miscellaneous Items.

The notorious counterfeiter, Ben. Boyd, has been captured near Fulton, Ill.

The case of the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R. was called up in Richmond, Va., to-day, before the U. S. Circuit Court, and after much debate by counsel, Judge Bond took the papers under consideration, and promised to report his decision in three or four days.
